

GLOBAL AGEING RESEARCH PROJECT

Partnership

Pontifical University of John Paul II in Krakow, Poland - Leader

University of Applied Sciences Upper Austria, Austria

Jean Monnet University, France

University of Ottawa LIFE Research Institute, Canada

Sau Po Center on Aging, Hong Kong University, Hong Kong

01,12.2018 to 30,11.2020

Aim of the project: to analyze the methodological standards and procedures and processes of research on old age by representatives of a wide international specialists environment, having in the output various research on old age, conducted due to the diversity of perspectives, cultures and experiences.

1. Preparation and printing of an international publication on methodology of ageing

4 articles /country
Published by springer

2. Conducting 5 workshops on "Ageing research - what for and for whom?"

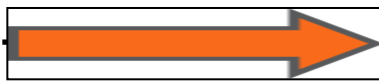

5 researchers /country

Canada (oct 2019)

Hong Kong (March 2020)

France (May 2020).....

Physical Activity and Ageing

Austria and Poland (July 2020)

3 Creation of a report on « ageing research” in each of the partner countries

HESPER

4 Organizing the International Scientific Workshop-Conference „Bringing to light methods in research ageing - international perspectives”, 31st of August - 4th of September 2020, Cracow

6 researchers/country
+
Keynote speakers
(invited)